4. [redacted] accompanied [redacted] OCI, to a meeting with Miss Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, and Mr. Charles Horner, Professional Staff Member, Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, for a briefing in preparation for a trip planned after the elections by Senator Jackson. In response to Mr. Horner's request, [redacted] reviewed in general terms some of the institutional problems in Communist China and their relation to ChiCom foreign policy together with a brief rundown on certain selected members of the defense establishment and the national leadership. [redacted] covered briefly ChiCom policy and activities in Southeast Asia, Burma and Thailand; India and Bangladesh; Middle East and Africa; Europe and MBFR; East Europe, Rumania and Yugoslavia; Soviet/China relations, the border problem; and Taiwan. Although many questions were raised by Mr. Horner in the context of [redacted] outline, the briefing was low-key and appeared to satisfy Miss Fosdick and Mr. Horner's request. There were no followups from the briefing.
